

Experience is vital but experience alone is insufficient, unless that experience produces learning that deepens expertise and strengthens personal qualities.

WHY MAKING MENTOR IS IMPORTANT?

A mentor is someone you can look up to. It is a person who guides you and helps you in making well informed decisions. Mentorship means that someone takes you under their wing to teach you how to fly...so to speak. "One of the greatest values of mentors is the ability to see ahead what others cannot see and to help them navigate a course to their destination." – John C. Maxwell

- 1. Important skills and knowledge are passed on from mentor to mentee.
- 2. Supportive relationships are formed.
- 3. Mentors give objective advice and constructive criticism.
- 4. Mentors help with setting reasonable and reachable goals.
- 5. Mentors become the mentee's cheerleader and confidence-booster.
- 6. Mentors are usually well connected within the arena they operate in.

Although mentors are very necessary for a business, it is not a one-way street. Mentee needs to be well informed about what it takes and why mentorship programmes are important to them. They need to be made aware of the value it provides. Mentors and mentees need to be compatible as well. Mentors can only transfer skills and invest in an individual if they are willing to learn and cooperate.
